REMARKS

Pursuant to CGS: 54-86e, the victim in this incident, a 30 year old female will be referred to as Victim.

On September 13, 2020 at 0114 hours, I was dispatched to a residence for a reported Suspicious Activity. Central Dispatch informed me that the caller reported that "Deontray Askew" was at her house and then hung up. Also that there is a protective order between them.

Upon arrival to the residence I made contact with Victim (30 y/o) who informed me that her ex-boyfriend, Deontray Askew (33 y/o) was at her residence when she arrived home but he left on foot prior to police arrival. I asked Victim to explain what occurred. Victim stated that she arrived home to her residence around 0100 hours and found that the Askew was inside her residence. Victim stated that upon entering her apartment, she walked past Askew and went to her bedroom which was when she realized that her clothing and sneakers were missing which angered her. She explained that she accused Askew of doing something with her stuff which is when he got angry and left the residence on foot. Victim informed me that there is a protective order on file and Askew is not supposed to be there.

Victim gave the following signed, sworn written statement,

"On September 13, 2020, I arrived to my residence at approximately 1 a.m. When I got home I noticed that my screen door was locked therefore I believed someone was inside my apartment as it could only be locked from the inside. I then knocked on my door at which time Deontray Askew looked out my window and then opened the door for me. I walked past Deontray and went to my bedroom. Once in my bedroom I noticed that all of my clothes and sneakers were missing. I asked Deontray where my stuff was. He began smiling and saying "really were doing this." Deontray then left my apartment on foot. I called the police. Deontray is my ex-boyfriend and I did not invite him over to my house. I think he got in with a key because there was no damage to my doors or windows. On this day Deontray looked like he was high on drugs."

I asked Victim if at any point in this incident did a physical altercation take place. She stated "no." Victim stated that Askew has violated the protective order in the past.

Dispatch informed me that there was full no-contact Protective Order on file in which Askew is the respondent and Victim is the protected person. Dispatch explained that the following boxes were checked, (CT01) - Do not assault, threaten, abuse, harass, follow, interfere with, or stalk the protected person.

(CT03) - Stay away from the home of the protected person and wherever the protected person shall reside.

(CT05) - Do not contact the protected person in any manner, including by written, electronic or telephone, and do not contact the protected person's home, workplace or others

(CT14) Other - May return to the protected person's home one time with police to retrieve belongings.

As I was speaking to Victim, Officer Dimassa located Askew on Rapallo Avenue. Askew was placed under arrest and transported to Middletown Police Headquarters for the booking process. Askew denied going to Victim's residence and stated that before this encounter he was hanging out at Traverse Square.

Once back at Police Headquarters, Askew was booked and processed under UAR # 8877976. He was consequently charged with CGS: 53a-223, Violation of a Protective Order. Askew is being held on a $5000.00 dollar surety bond and is scheduled to be arraigned at GA:09 on September 14, 2020 at 0900 hours.

Nothing further.

Domestic Violence arrest

On Saturday, 09/12/20 at approximately 1010 hours I Ofc Hillman and Ofc Maio responded to a location here in Middletown, CT. on a domestic dispute.

Upon arrival, officers could hear yelling and arguing from inside the residence and a voice saying "get off me" multiple times. Shayasia Crump, age 26 answered the door and stated everything was fine and that she was having a disagreement with the victim.

Shayasia stated she and the victim had a verbal argument about money and said the altercation only became physical when she held the victim down on the couch to try and calm her down.

An inquiry with dispatch confirmed there is an active full no contact order of protection in place with Shayasia as the respondent and the victim as the protected party.

Shayasia was subsequently arrested on scene, was taken into police custody and transported to MPD H.Q. for processing.

Shayasia was charged in violation of C.G.S. 53a-223, Violation of a Protective Order and 53a-182, Disorderly Conduct. She was released on a $25,000.00 surety bond to Liza Davis Bail Bonds and is scheduled to appear in Middletown Superior Court (GA9) on 09/14/20.

On September 12, 2020 I, Officer Wade, was assigned to evening shift patrol.

I was advised of a domestic at undisclosed location. My investigation found that Kathleen Dyson assaulted VICTIM (boyfriend) by punching him, kicking him, and jumping on his back. VICTIM stated the incident caused pain to his back. Both parties admitted to drinking alcohol on this date. I observed a minor scab that appeared to be scratched off on VICTIM, and VICTIM gave a sworn written statement of the incident.

Dyson was issued a misdemeanor summons #MC807821 for Assault 3rd. Dyson is scheduled to appear at GA 9 in Middletown on 9/14/2020 at 0900 hours. Dyson was released on a PTA with Condition of Release CT01, CT03, CT05, do not use or possess a dangerous weapon, and do not use or possess an intoxicant or controlled substance.
